Dear Customer

Thank you for choosing Homeland Wales as the company for your work. Our system is amongst the finest, most advanced on the market to date.

For the ultimate in convenience every feature has been designed with an eye to low maintenance and, in the biggest part, no maintenance at all. Homeland's systems are extremely durable and inherently strong through superior specification and manufacturing techniques.

Homeland are also at the forefront of positive crime prevention, helping to secure your family home. Using a securely glazed design (an obvious but extremely effective intruder deterrent), shootbolts and espagnolette locking systems, supplemented by advanced security hinges and anti-lever devices, Homeland presents an impressive defensive product range as standard.

Compliant to the latest Building Regulations as standard and boasting some of the best U Values available, the system has been designed around easy maintenance and trouble free installations.
